

REVISED BYLAWS
OF FOOTHILLS GATEWAY, INC.

ARTICLE I

Offices

1. Business Offices. The principal office of the corporation shall be at 301 Skyway Drive, Fort Collins, Colorado 80525. The corporation may also have one or more offices at such other place or places within or without the State of Colorado as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or as the business of the corporation may require.

2. Registered Office. The registered office of the corporation shall be as established by the Board of Directors and established with the Colorado Secretary of State.

ARTICLE II

Members' Meetings

1. Membership. The membership of this corporation shall consist of one class. Any individual eighteen (18) years or older, or any professional, business, lay, fraternal, religious or educational group who has contributed twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or more to the corporation during the calendar year prior to the annual meeting or in the fiscal year in which the annual meeting occurs; or has given eight (8) hours or more of voluntary service to the corporation during the calendar year prior to the annual meeting or in the fiscal year in which the annual meeting occurs shall be a member for purposes of voting and acting at meetings of members.

2. Annual Meetings. The annual meetings of members for the election of directors to succeed those whose terms expire and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting shall be held in each year on the first Monday in March at 7:00 p.m. or at such other time as may be set by the Board of Directors.

3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of members for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by statute or by the Articles of Incorporation, may be called at any time by the President or by the Board of Directors.

4. Places of Meeting. Meetings of members shall be held at the principal office of the corporation or at such other place or places, within or without the State of Colorado, as may be from time to time determined by the Board of Directors.

5. Notice of Meetings. Notification of meetings of the membership shall be posted in a prominent place at the principal office of the corporation and shall be published at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting in the newsletter published by the corporation and may also be (i) published in daily newspapers of general circulation or other media deemed appropriate by the Board of Directors at that time and (ii) placed on the website(s) maintained by the corporation. Such notification shall be published at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting.

6. Voting List. At least ten (10) days before every meeting of members, a complete list of members entitled to vote thereat or any adjournment thereof, arranged in alphabetical order, showing the address of each member, shall be prepared by the officer or agent of the corporation who has charge of the books of the corporation. Such list shall be open at the principal office of the corporation to the inspection of any member during usual business hours for a period of at least ten (10) days prior to such meeting, and such list shall be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof and subject to the inspection of any member who may be present.

7. Organization. The President or Vice-President shall call meetings of members to order and act as chairman of such meetings. In the absence of said officers, any member entitled to vote thereat may call the meeting to order and a chairman shall be elected. In the absence of the Secretary of the corporation, any person appointed by the chairman shall act as secretary of such meetings.

8. Quorum. Those holders of memberships issued and outstanding and entitled to vote, being present at any meeting, regular or special, shall constitute a quorum of members for the transaction of business.

9. Voting. At every meeting of members, each member having the right to vote shall be entitled to vote in person; proxy voting shall not be authorized. The cumulative system of voting shall not be allowed in voting for directors.

The vote of a majority of the members having voting power present in person shall decide any question which the membership is authorized to act upon and which is brought before such meeting, unless the question is one upon which express provision of a statute, or the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws, a different vote is required, in which case such express provision shall govern and control the decision of such question.

ARTICLE III

Board of Directors

1. General Powers, Election, Tenure and Qualification. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors who shall be elected at the annual meeting of members.

2. Performance of Duties. A director of the corporation shall perform his or her duties as a director, including his or her duties as a member of any committee of the board upon which he or she may serve, in good faith, in a manner he or she reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation as required by the Colorado Revised Non-Profit Corporation Act and with such judgment as an ordinary prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances. In performing his or her duties, a director shall be entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data as allowed by the Colorado Revised Non-Profit Corporation Act. A person who so performs his or her duties shall not have any liability by reason of being or having been a director of the corporation. Those persons on whose information, opinions, reports, and statements a director is entitled to rely are: (a) one or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; (b) counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters which the director reasonably believes to be within such persons' professional or expert competence; or (c) a committee of the board upon which he or she does not serve, duly designated in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws, as to matters within its designated authority, which committee the director reasonably believes to merit confidence.

3. Number. The Board of Directors shall, subject to the limitations set forth in the Articles of Incorporation, consist of the number of members as set by the Board of Directors from time to time. The composition of the Board of Directors shall have a balance of and represent the various communities within Larimer County, Colorado, and will have no less than one (1) consumer of services represented on the board. Directors shall be elected for staggered three-year terms and shall serve until their successors shall be elected and qualified. A director filling a vacancy shall serve for the unexpired term of director's position for which that director has been appointed to fill. Employees of the corporation and employees or board members of approved service agencies of the community centered board may not serve on the Board of Directors or voting in elections for members of the Board of Directors.

4. Regular Meetings. After each annual election of directors, the Board of Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, selection of a President, the election of officers, establishing regular meeting dates until the next annual meeting and transaction of any other business. Notice of the time and place of regular meetings shall be posted in a prominent location at the corporation's principal office.

Written minutes of all public board meetings shall be filed as a matter of agency record and shall be available to the public on request. A member of the Board of Directors missing three (3) consecutive meetings without being excused or having taken an approved leave of absence shall be deemed to have resigned from the Board. A member of the Board of Directors that does not attend a minimum of seven (7) meetings per year, unless the board by two-thirds (2/3) vote of all of its members excuses additional absences in unique circumstances, shall be considered a resignation from the Board. Attendance will be monitored using a time frame of annual meeting to annual meeting to establish a yearly attendance record. Board of Director members who have missed two (2) consecutive meetings without being excused or are in jeopardy of not meeting the minimum of seven (7) meetings per year, may be notified via mail by the Secretary of the possibility of an involuntary resignation.

In the event of unusual circumstances, a member of the Board of Directors may request a leave of absence. A leave of absence request must be approved by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors, acting at least fifteen (15) days after a written request from the Board member for a leave of absence has been submitted.

5. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be on two (2) days notice to each director, sent either personally, by electronic transmission or by telephone, and shall be called by the President or Secretary or any three (3) directors. The purpose of a special meeting of the Board of Directors need not be stated in the notice thereof.

6. Place of Meetings. Any meeting of the Board of Directors may be held at such place or places either within or without the State of Colorado as shall from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors or fixed by the President and designated in the notice of the meeting.

7. Quorum. A majority of the actual number of directors within the limits vested by Article III, Section 3, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the Board of Directors. In the absence of a quorum at any such meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice until a quorum shall be present.

8. Voting. Members of the Board of Directors are prohibited from voting on issues in which they have a conflict of interest. If a director is present at a meeting and does not dissent or abstain or the minutes do not reflect that he or she is dissented or abstain from the directors' action, then he or she will be deemed to have voted for any action affirmatively.

9. Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors though less than a quorum of the Board of Directors. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office. A director chosen to fill a position resulting from an increase in the number of directors shall hold office until the next annual meeting of members and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify.

10. Compensation of Board of Directors. Directors shall receive no remuneration for services rendered in their capacity as directors of the corporation.

11. Audit. An annual audit shall be conducted at the end of the fiscal year of the corporation by an independent firm of Certified Public Accountants.

12. Resignation and Removal. Any member of the Board of Directors may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President or Secretary at least fifteen (15) days prior to the monthly meeting, at which point the resignation will be presented to the Board of Directors. Such resignation shall take effect upon receiving notice thereof or at such later time as shall be specified in such notice; and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Any director or directors of the corporation may be removed at any time, with or without cause, in the manner provided in the Colorado Non-Profit Corporation Act.

ARTICLE IV

Executive Committee

1. Appointment. There shall be an executive committee which shall be made up of the President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary, immediate past President and Executive Director. The Board of Directors may appoint additional members to the Executive Committee and limit or otherwise establish their terms and authority. The Executive Director shall participate with only an advisory non-voting status. The designation of such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed by law.

2. Authority. The Executive Committee, when the Board of Directors is not in session, shall have, and may exercise all of, the authority of the Board of Directors except to the extent, if any, that such authority shall be limited by the Colorado Non-Profit Corporation Act. The Executive Committee specifically shall not have the authority of the Board of Directors in reference to amending the Articles of Incorporation; electing, appointing or removing a director; adopting a plan of merger or consolidation; recommending to the members the sale, lease or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the property and assets of the corporation otherwise than in the usual and regular course of its business; recommending to the members a voluntary dissolution of the corporation or a revocation thereof; or amending these Bylaws.

3. Tenure and Qualifications. Each member of the Executive Committee shall hold office until the next regular annual meeting of the Board of Directors following his or her designation and until his or her successor is designated as a member of the Executive Committee and is elected and qualified.

4. Meetings. Regular meetings of the Executive Committee may be held without notice at such time and place as the Executive Committee may fix from time to time by resolution. Special meetings of the Executive Committee may be called by any member thereof upon not less than one (1) day's notice, stating the place, date and hour of the meeting, which notice may be written and communicated electronically or orally. Notice of a meeting may be mailed but, if mailed, such meeting must be called on not less than five (5) days' notice and shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the member of the Executive Committee at his or her business address or, when transmitted telephonically, by facsimile to the member. Any member of the Executive Committee may waive notice of any meeting and no notice of any meeting need be given to any member thereof who attends in person. The notice of a meeting of the Executive Committee need not state the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting.

5. Quorum. A majority of the members of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting thereof, and action of the Executive Committee must be authorized by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

6. Vacancies. Any vacancy in the Executive Committee may be filled by a resolution adopted by the Board of Directors.

7. Resignations and Removal. Any member of the Executive Committee may be removed at any time with or without cause by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors. Any member of the Executive Committee may resign from the Executive Committee at any time by giving written notice to the President or Secretary of the corporation, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

8. Procedure. The Executive Committee shall elect a presiding officer from its members and may fix its own rules of procedure, which shall not be inconsistent with these Bylaws. It shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and report the same to the Board of Directors for its information at the meeting thereof held next after the proceedings shall have been taken.

9. Other Committees. Other committees may be formed and vested with authority and members of such committees appointed by a resolution adopted by the Board of Directors. Any committee's authority may be limited or restructured by the Board of Directors at any time.

ARTICLE V Officers

1. Election and Tenure. The Board of Directors annually shall elect a President, a Vice President, a Secretary and a Treasurer. The Board may also elect or appoint such other officers and assistant officers as may be determined by the Board. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person; except the offices of President and Secretary. Each officer so elected or appointed shall continue in office until his successor shall be elected or appointed and shall qualify, or until resignation, removal, death or other disqualifications.

2. Resignation, Removal and Vacancies. Any officers may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President or Secretary or the Board of Directors. Any notice shall be effective when received unless the notice states a later effective date; no acceptance of the same shall be necessary to render the same effective. The Board of Directors may remove any officer at any time with or without cause. If any office becomes vacant for any reason, the vacancy shall be filled by the Board of Directors. An officer appointed to fill a vacancy shall be appointed for the unexpired term of the predecessor in office.

3. President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation. He or she shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors or the members, and shall have general and active management of the business of the corporation.
